In an effort to keep dues low, the FMA and DCMA have entered into several endorsement agreements with various vendors. As part of the endorsement agreement, the FMA and DCMA will include advertisements from the vendors on newsletters and other material faxed and emailed to our members. By virtue of your membership in the DCMA and FMA, you consent to the receipt of these unsolicited advertisements, unless you specifically opt out by notifying the DCMA and FMA in writing of your desire not to receive any materials via fax or email. Tax Deduction Information for your records, please note that the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 states that association dues used for lobbying activities are not deductible as a business expense. As a result, 10% of your DCMA dues, 25% of your FMA dues, and 50% of your AMA dues for 2009 cannot be deducted as a business expense for income tax purposes. While Association dues are not tax deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes, they may be tax deductible under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.
